Sheriff Bill Wayburn
Tarrant County Sheriff's Office
200 Taylor Street, 7th floor.
Fort Worth, TX 76102

Dear Sheriff Wayburn,

During the comprehensive inspection of the Giles W. Dalby Correctional Center, referred to as Garza (P), conducted on December 15, 2023, six deficiencies were identified and a notice of non-compliance issued. A review of the facility's corrective action plan and supplemental documentation has determined that five of these deficiencies have been corrected.

During a review of the remaining area of non-compliance regarding inmate disciplinary reports, it was determined that issues remained, and the facility was instructed to provide additional reports for review. If there are no issues with the inmate disciplinary documentation dated February 2, 2024, Inspector Jouett will advise Garza(P) staff that they may request a formal re-inspection.

It should be noted that the facility may be subject to comprehensive re-inspection depending on the order in which the request is received and in accordance with Texas Administrative Code 297.8. Once a re-inspection is conducted, either by administrative means or on-site, if no deficiencies are identified, Garza (P) will be issued a certificate of compliance with minimum jail standards.

Respectfully,
