This Interlocal Agreement ("Agreement") is between Tarrant County, Texas ("County"), and Texas A&M University, a member of The Texas A&M University System and agency of the State of Texas, on behalf of the Texas A&M University School of Law ("TAMU Law"). When referred to collectively, the County and TAMU Law are referred to as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, the County, through its Dispute Resolution department, provides mediation and conflict resolution training to residents, businesses, agencies, and the courts with a mission to provide citizens with a quick, cost-effective, procedurally fair, non-adversarial and voluntary resolution to litigation or conflicts; and

WHEREAS, the County's Dispute Resolution department has previously partnered with law schools in the past to provide mediation and conflict resolution training; and

WHEREAS, the County and TAMU Law originally entered into an Interlocal Agreement on October 18, 2022 in Commissioners Court Order #13943, which this present Agreement now supersedes; and

WHEREAS, TAMU Law can provide credentialed mediation training that meets the requirements of the Texas Mediator Credentialing Association and Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable, for the benefit of the County and TAMU Law's students; and

WHEREAS, completion of the mediation training by TAMU Law's students will allow the students to be appointed as mediators by Texas courts pursuant to Section 154.052(a) of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code; and

WHEREAS, the Interlocal Cooperation Act contained in Chapter 791 of the Texas Government Code provides legal authority for the parties to enter into this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, during the performance of the government functions and the payment for the performance of those governmental functions under this Agreement, the Parties will make the performance and payment from the current revenues legally available to that party; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court of the COUNTY and TAMU Law make the following findings:

- a. This Agreement serves the common interests of both parties;
- b. This Agreement will benefit the public;
- c. The division of costs fairly compensates both Parties to this Agreement; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the County and TAMU Law agree as follows:

2. TERM

The Agreement shall commence on October 1, 2024 with an initial term of one year. There will be no reimbursable items.

4. AGENCY-INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

Neither County nor any employee thereof is an agent of TAMU Law and neither TAMU Law nor any employee thereof is an agent of County. This agreement does not and may not be construed to entitle either party or any of their respective employees, if applicable, to any benefit, privilege, or other amenities of employment by the other party.

5. ASSIGNMENT

Neither party may assign, in whole nor in part, any interest in this contract without the prior written consent of the other party.

6. THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARY EXCLUDED

No person not a party to this Agreement shall be regarded as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. This Agreement may not be interpreted to waive governmental immunity, sovereign immunity, or any other defense or immunities otherwise available by law of any party to this contract, or the employees or representatives of such party, to the extent such party may have immunity under Texas or Federal law.

7. ENTIRE CONTRACT

This Agreement represents the entire understanding of and between the parties and supersedes all prior representations. This contract may not be varied orally, but must be amended by written document of subsequent date duly executed by these parties.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. To the extent that Chapter 2260, Texas Government Code is applicable to this Agreement, the dispute resolution process provided in Chapter 2260, and the related rules adopted by the Texas Attorney General pursuant to Chapter 2260, shall be used by TAMU Law and County to attempt to resolve any claim for breach of contract made by County that cannot be resolved in the ordinary course of business. County shall submit written notice of a claim of breach of contract under this Chapter to the University Contracts Officer of TAMU Law, who shall examine County's claim and any counterclaim and negotiate with County in an effort to resolve the claim. This provision and nothing in this Agreement waives TAMU Law's sovereign immunity to suit or liability, and TAMU Law has not waived its right to seek redress in the courts.
- B. County acknowledges that TAMU Law is obligated to strictly comply with the Public Information Act, Chapter 552, Texas Government Code, in responding to any request for public information pertaining to this Agreement, as well as any other disclosure of information required by applicable Texas law. Upon TAMU Law's written request, and at no cost to TAMU Law, County will promptly provide specified contracting information exchanged or created under this Agreement for or on behalf of TAMU Law in a non-proprietary format acceptable to TAMU Law that is accessible by the public. County acknowledges that TAMU Law may be required to post a copy of the fully executed Agreement on its Internet website in compliance with Section 2261.253(a)(1), Texas Government Code. The requirements of Subchapter J, Chapter 552, Texas Government Code, may apply to this Agreement and County agrees that this Agreement can be terminated if County knowingly or intentionally fails to comply with a requirement of that subchapter.
- C. County and TAMU Law expressly acknowledge that TAMU Law is an agency of the State of Texas and County is a political subdivision of the State of Texas and nothing in this Agreement will be construed as a waiver or relinquishment by Texas or County of its right to claim such exemptions, privileges, and immunities as may be provided by law.
- D. Neither Party shall be held liable or responsible to the other Party nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement for failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any obligation under this Agreement if and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from causes beyond the affected Party's reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, strikes, riots, flood, fire, epidemics, natural disaster, embargoes, war, insurrection, terrorist acts or any other circumstances of like character; provided, however, that the affected Party has not caused such force majeure event(s), shall use reasonable commercial efforts to avoid or remove such causes of nonperformance, and shall continue performance hereunder with reasonable dispatch whenever such causes are removed. Either Party shall provide the other Party with prompt written notice of any delay or failure to perform that occurs by reason of force majeure, including describing the force majeure event(s) and the actions taken to minimize the impact of such event(s).
- E. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which will constitute one and the same agreement and will become effective when counterparts have been signed by each party and delivered to the other party. Transmission of signature pages by facsimile or by e-mail in a "pdf" format is acceptable.
