THE FORT WORTH
PUBLIC LIBRARY
FOUNDATION

Property Donation
State of Texas
County of Tarrant

This agreement is by and between Woman's Wednesday Club of Fort Worth (the Donor) and The Fort Worth Public Library Foundation (FWPLF), a Texas non-profit organization, with offices at 500 West 3rd Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102 (817-871-8022). Donor and FWPLF hereby agree as follows:

1. The Donor, as a present, act hereby gives, donates, grants, conveys, transfers, and sets over unto FWPLF the items of property described below (the Property), including all copyright interests, if any. This donation is made to benefit the FWPLF and is a gift free of charge to FWPLF. Donor and FWPLF acknowledge that FWPLF has not and will not provide any services or goods to Donor in return for this donation. Donor expressly agrees for Donor and Donor's heirs, successors, and assigns, that FWPLF has and shall have the right to deal with (including, without limitation, the right to own, possess, maintain, handle, exhibit, display, store, move, relocate, lend, and use the Property as FWPLF desires. If the FWPLF determines that it cannot use the donation for display in a museum-style library, Donor will be consulted as to the disposition of the property without liability to Donor or any other person or entity therefore (including, without limitation, Donor's heirs, successors, and assigns).

Property description: The Woman's Wednesday Club of Fort Worth donates its collection of books that have been used over the decades from approximately 1890 through 1960 for the Club's study of a variety of literary, artistic, cultural, historical, and political topics. The collection includes individual titles as well as multi-volume sets. According to a 2009 appraisal, the collection has 80 special titles, 250 volumes in set, and 570 individual titles. The Woman's Wednesday Club also donates 6 glass-fronted locking bookcases that currently house the books.
