WHEREAS, Commissioner Devan Allen dedicated her 20-year career to public service, and when elected in 2018, her historic victory marked a change - that the community was ready for compassionate leadership; and

WHEREAS, upon her election, Commissioner Allen was the first Democrat elected from her precinct, the third African American and the youngest commissioner ever elected in Tarrant County; and

WHEREAS, also being the third woman ever elected in the 100-plus year history of the court, Commissioner Allen ensured all women elected in Tarrant County were recognized for their service, including those who walked before her – Commissioner Dionne Bagsby and Commissioner Marti Van Ravenswaay; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Allen worked towards elevating the voice and needs of her community during historic times – a global pandemic, a global social justice movement, and a 100-year storm, never giving up her fight to expand access and equity in county government; and

WHEREAS, guided by her faith in God and personal mantra, ‘When we work and love authentically ourselves, we encourage the hopes and dream of others,’ Commissioner Allen dedicated her time on the court to serving with tenacity and courage; even in the face of opposition; and
