EXTERNAL EMAIL ALERT! Think Before You Click!

Good Afternoon,

One of our staff members was cleaning out their office and found an Arlington High School yearbook among the items. As this does not fit our collection development policy, we wished to offer it to your archives. Please find attached a couple of photographs of the item for your information. We would happily ship it at no cost. If you are unable to use this item in your collection, please let us know if there are any other archives in the area that might be interested.

Thank you!

Best,
Amanda

Re: History of a Tarrant County Church

Dear Dr. Youngblood,

My Dad, Julian Gornto, was pastor of a church on the south side of Fort Worth for many years, and I have come into possession of some historic information of the church. It is located at 3900 College Avenue, and during the years of our connection with the church, it was known as Hemphill Community Church and also Southside Advent Christian Church. The denomination was Advent Christian, not to be confused with a Seventh-Day Adventist congregation.

Early in my remembrance, there was only one other Advent Christian Church in the area, Pleasant Hill Advent Christian Church, Grapevine (now Southlake). That buildings are no longer standing, but they were north of White's Chapel Church. That is where our denomination held its annual business conference, and (youth) Camp Texas simultaneously each summer.

During my childhood, a church was organized which was named the Riverside Advent Christian Church, and it was on North Riverside Drive.

I believe the Riverside Church is the only one surviving at this time, but there might be a small fellowship in the Southlake area.

The reason I'm sending this to you now is that my husband and I will be moving to Oklahoma City soon to be near our children.

Please accept this binder of information from my parents' personal files and use it as you can so that the history of some very dear people and their church will not be lost.

Sincerely,

Joyce Gornto Cotharn
